

Philip F. Napoli
Brief CV

Associate Professor
US Social and Public History
Brooklyn College
City University of New York
2900 Bedford Ave
Brooklyn, NY 11210

Email: pnapoli@brooklyn.cuny.edu
Phone: 917-749-2118
Homepage: www.philipnapoli.com

Education:

1998	Ph.D., American History, Columbia University
1990	M.Phil., American History, Columbia University
1988	M.A., European History, Columbia University
1982	B.A., Honors in History, McGill University

Publications:

2023	Philip F. Napoli and Qwynn Galloway-Salazar, "Vicarious Trauma: Interviewing Soldiers and Their Caregivers," in A Professional's Guide to Understanding Trauma and Loss (Cambridge Scholars Publishing, 2023), 85–97.
2020	"The Radicalism of Oral History: Teaching and Reflecting on War, Empire, and Capitalism" Radical Teacher Review . In Press. July 2020.
2019	"Oral History, Moral Injury, and Vietnam Veterans," The Oral History Review 46, no. 1 (March 1, 2019): 71–103, https://doi.org/10.1093/ohr/ohy098 .
2013	Bringing It All Back Home: An Oral History of New York City's Vietnam Veterans (New York: Hill & Wang, 2013).

Current Research:

“More Than Our Own Pain: John Rowan and the Vietnam Veterans Movement.” Co-written with John Rowan, former president of Vietnam Veterans of America. Combines traditional biography and oral history. In press with University of Massachusetts Press.

Teaching Experience:

2001–Present | Brooklyn College, Department of History

Undergraduate courses:

- The Shaping of the Modern World
- US Social History from Reconstruction
- Vietnam and the American Experience of War
- Immigration and Ethnicity in the United States
- History of American Popular Culture
- The Public and the Past
- Oral History Theory and Method
- War and American Society
- US Since 1865
- The Peopling of New York City

Graduate Courses:

- The American War in Vietnam
- American Immigrant Groups

Public History Work:

2003-Present | Director, Brooklyn College Veterans Oral History Project

2013-2017 | Advisory Board Member, New-York Historical Society
Exhibition on the Vietnam War. Opened October 2017.

2007-2010 | Co-Curator, In Our Own Voice: Portraits of Brooklyn's Vietnam Veterans, Brooklyn Historical Society

Grants and Awards:

2014 | Patriotism Award, United Military Veterans of Kings County.

2013 | Honored for “Outstanding (Public) Student Service” by the Veteran Students’ Organization, Brooklyn College.

2009 | Selected "Outstanding Faculty Member" by the Brooklyn College Graduating Seniors of 2009.

Service to the College and University:

2020-2023	Chair, Brooklyn College Department of History
2019-2020	Undergraduate Deputy, Brooklyn College Department of History
2018-2019	Directory, Macaulay Honors at Brooklyn College
2017	Undergraduate Deputy, Brooklyn College Department of History
2013-2017	Member, CUNY Integrated Institutional Review Board
2016-Present	Chair, Vice President's Task Force on Veterans Affairs
2012-2016	Chair, Brooklyn College Institutional Review Board

Service to the Department:

2020-2022	Chair, Department of History
2019-2020	Chair, Undergraduate Curriculum Committee, Department of History
2017-2020	Undergraduate Deputy Chair, Department of History
2017-2018	Member, Appointments Committee, Department of History
2016-2019	Member, Curriculum Committee, Department of History
2015	Faculty Chaperone, Memorial Day trip to Washington, DC, Veteran Students' Organization. May 24-25.
2014	Faculty Chaperone, Memorial Day trip to Washington, DC, Veteran Students' Organization. May 24-27.

July 20, 23